Upon the application of the United States of America, Audrey Strauss, Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Assistant United States Attorney Michael R. 2. The defendant and defense counsel are precluded from disseminating any disks containing the Discovery, and any and all printouts and/or digital versions of the Discovery (and any copies and/or screenshots) to anyone beyond the defendant, defense counsel, investigative, secretarial, clerical, and paralegal personnel employed full-time or part-time by defense counsel, independent expert witnesses, investigators, or advisors retained by the defense counsel in connection with this action, and other prospective witnesses and their counsel, to the extent deemed necessary by defense counsel, for the purpose of defending this criminal action, and such other persons as hereafter may be authorized by the Court upon motion by the defendant.

3. The defendant and defense counsel are precluded from disseminating any disks containing the Discovery, and any and all printouts and/or digital versions of the Discovery (and any copies and/or screenshots) to any named defendant who has not yet been apprehended or any such defendant's counsel.

5. The defendant and defense counsel must destroy or return any disks containing the Discovery, and any and all printouts and/or digital versions of the Discovery (including all copies), at the conclusion of the trial of this matter or when any appeal has terminated and the judgment has become final, subject to defense counsel's obligation to retain client files under the Rules of Professional Conduct.

6. This Order places no restriction on a defendant's use or disclosure of Discovery materials that originally belonged to the defendant.

[Remainder intentionally blank]
